DISCLOSURE OF MATERIAL FACTS

It is your duty to fully and accurately disclose all material facts to Insurers prior to inception of the policy and to keep them advised of any changes to such facts or any new such facts throughout the currency of the policy and upon renewal of the policy.

A material fact is a fact that may influence an Insurer's judgment in their assessment of a risk. If you are in any doubt as to whether a fact is material, we recommend that it be disclosed. Failure to disclose material facts may entitle the Insurers to avoid the policy from inception.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS/REFUNDS

We adhere to strict terms of credit on insurance premiums. Any payment request must be paid by the settlement date agreed prior to issuance of policy. Failure to do so may invalidate cover and entitle Insurers to cancel the policy and/or refuse any claims. notice of the cancellation. In the event of cancellation of an insurance contract, insurers will still require a pro rata premium to be paid.

If we have not received the premium from yourselves, we are under no obligation to pay the premium by the payment date to insurers on your behalf.

In the event that the insurance is cancelled after inception, we are not obliged to refund any fees or brokerage. However, we will return any premiums net of commission refunded by Insurers.

If there is any doubt about these, immediate advice should be sought from us.

CLAIMS

You are responsible for notifying claims or potential circumstances that may give rise to a claim in writing to us as soon as possible and within any time limits imposed on your individual policies. Claims may be made against a policy long after its expiry date. It is important, therefore, that you keep your policy documents in a secure place.
